Campus Representative Agreement

"Gleim" means Gleim Publications Inc., its officers, employees, subsidiaries, and affiliates.

"Campus Representative" or "Ambassador" means _____ (Rep's Name).

"Program" means the Gleim Campus Representative Program.

Responsibilities

Being a Campus Representative is a serious responsibility. Therefore, you have to approach the position with professionalism and care.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Creating a positive representation of Gleim accounting materials
- Passing out Gleim materials
- Posting on social media
- Attending and/or speaking at collegial accounting meetings

Consent

As Campus Representative, you give Gleim permission to use any materials, content, photos, and videos developed as a result of your participation in the Program. Additionally, you authorize Gleim to publish, exhibit, or license any materials, photos, audio, and video recordings that were created for the Program. You acknowledge Gleim as the sole owner of all materials, photos, audio, and video produced for the program.

Exclusive Arrangement

You agree that you will not represent Gleim's competitors or any other exam preparation providers while serving as a Gleim Campus Representative and for one year afterward.

Confidentiality

As a Campus Representative, you may have access to confidential information regarding Gleim. You are required to keep confidential information, proprietary systems, and trade secrets private and only share this information as required in performing your duties as a Campus Representative.

Award/Compensation

Upon acceptance to the program, you will receive access to Gleim's undergraduate Exam Questions and Explanations (EQE) to help you with your current studies. In order to receive a free course review, you must accumulate 100 points by completing various tasks as outlined in the Gleim Campus Representative Handbook. Once completed, you will be awarded one Gleim Premium Review System of your choice (CPA, CIA, CMA, or EA).

By signing below, I acknowledge that I understand the terms of this arrangement and agree to the above.
